EMPLOYMENT

2019-2021

Coronado Schools Foundation • Coronado, CA

Served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Coronado Schools Foundation, managing a staff of four fulltime and two parttime employees and overseeing a Board of Directors comprised of more than one dozen high-profile business and community leaders. Oversaw the design, creation, and execution of strategic fundraising operations during the Covid-19 pandemic which resulted in the closure of public schools, forbiddance of in-person fundraising events, and inability to meet in person with donors, key constituents, and community members. Successfully transitioned all annual fundraising events and activities into virtual events, resulting in the most profitable CSF Telethon in the organization's history and a highly attended and financially successful Fall Gala and Auction with the theme, "Who Dunnit? A Coronado Mystery." Also created guidelines for the Jill Hardman Endowment, devoted solely to the arts in Coronado Public Schools, and enabled its inaugural program funding.

2009-2019

UC San Diego • La Jolla, CA

Served as Corporate Secretary for the UC San Diego Foundation, performing key administrative, support, and analytical functions to assist the UC San Diego Foundation CFO with facilitating the Board of Trustees' complex and varied fiduciary responsibilities, meetings, events, agendas, and records. This required frequent communication with the Foundation's 42-member Board of Trustees, as well as the Chancellor, Vice Chancellors, and Deans of various academic areas. Prior to that, Program Manager responsible for six graduate and/or professional development certificates overseeing enrollment of more than 2,000 students in 180+ classes per year, with annual revenues approaching $1,000,000. Oversaw the quarterly budgets of each of the programs managed.

2005-2009

San Diego County Bar Association • San Diego, CA

Director of Education for San Diego's largest bar association, serving 10,000+ members' educational, professional, and business development needs. Oversaw planning and development of more than 240 MCLE (Mandatory Continuing Legal Education as defined by the State Bar of California) seminars annually (providing 360+ hours of MCLE instruction). Implemented strategic plan to increase attendance at annual events by more than 70%, resulting in correlating increases in revenue. Worked directly with leadership to implement "Children at Risk" and CARE (Credit Abuse Resistance Education) programs in SD County. Directed or served on numerous strategic planning and oversight committees, including MCLE Advisory Board, Sections and Committees Council, Bridging the Gap Steering Committee, Policies and Procedures Committee, Law School Outreach Committee, and Educational Technology Strategic Planning Committee.

1999-2005

Coronado Unified School District • Coronado, CA

Long-term substitute teaching Sophomore Honors and Freshman English at CHS. Served as Director of Junior Achievement Program at Coronado Middle School; successful at fundraising efforts to implement program; recruited, trained and supervised staff of 150+ volunteers to implement educational program for 2000+ students.

1995- 1999

Jm Communications • San Diego, CA

Founded successful communications company specializing in freelance writing; market-specific editorial; public relations; new product concept development; quantitative and qualitative focus group research; media relations. National award-winning journalist; nationally syndicated book review columnist; columnist/writer for San Diego Family Magazine; contributor to the San Diego Union Tribune.
